“Sasha Graham’s Ghost Stories and Tarot” to play Edinburgh Festival Fringe August 7 - 31, 2026

January 19, 2026—New York, New York. — GST Productions has confirmed it will produce Sasha Graham’s one-woman show Ghost Stories and Tarot, directed by Catherine Mary Stewart, for a full run of 24 shows at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe in Edinburgh, Scotland UK.

Sasha Graham is the award winning, bestselling author of over 13 books and tarot decks. Graham, a former horror actress with over 20 movies under her belt and is a tarot expert who lectures and teaches about metaphysics around the world.

Director Catherine Mary Stewart’s first notable role was as Kayla Brady on the soap opera Days of our Lives from 1981 to 1983. In 1984 she starred in two feature films, The Last Starfighter as Maggie Gordon and Night of the Comet as Regina Belmont.

“Under Graham’s spell her ghost stories and even the tarot become experiences the audience must negotiate to undergo the transformation each card holds in potential – if we step up and do the work. This might sound challenging. And, of course, it is. But Graham is kind and wise, a beautiful forest witch who knows that sometimes we must travel the darkest paths to find the light.” ~ Susan Wands Writes
